*"To strive, to seek, to find
—and not to yield."*

Theme

*"All the world's a stage,
And all the men and women merely players:
They have their exits and their entrances;
And one man in his time plays many parts, . . ."*

Dedication

*"Wisdom and fortune combating together,
If that the former dare but what it can,
No chance may shake it."*

Emerson D. Jarvis, Ph. D.

Superintendent

Emerson D. Jarvis has been head of the Bexley School System since January, 1948. He has won the admiration and respect of all who have worked with him. Dr. Jarvis is a graduate of Franklin College, Indiana, and Ohio State Universities.

Dr. Jarvis comments: "All the world's a stage was never truer than today. Opportunities for learning about and understanding all people are increasing constantly. Resulting responsibilities for critical judgment and constructive action create compelling forces for improvement in our ways of living.

All the men and women merely players emphasize that each of us faces the task of discerning the importance of individual contributions to the general welfare of our nation and the individuals in it. The greatest fight for freedom is to clarify thinking processes, apply knowledge to the solution of problems, and act creatively in terms of convictions.

Worshipping at the shrine of criticism is for the weak. To go forward is to live by building—new things, new ideas, and new methods of working with people, so that results are longer lasting, fairer to all, and more effective in forwarding the cause of freedom, with restraint."

Clyde W. Jones, M. A.

Principal

Clyde W. Jones has completed his first year as principal of Bexley High School. To each of us, the students, he has become an unforgettable friend. He has brought with him many new ideas and projects which he has instituted with the welfare of the student in mind. Mr. Jones is a graduate of Wilmington College and Ohio State University. He enjoys collecting and refinishing antiques, officiating at basketball games, and playing a good game of golf.

Mr. Jones states the following about the theme of this year's Bexleo: "The world as Shakespeare knew it was only a minor production as compared to the great drama unfolding in today's complex civilization. The citizens of Shakespeare's day were only bit players on a small stage made so by geographic and political restrictions. What they said, how they acted, was of little importance outside of their small sphere. Today's drama is being enacted on a stage made limitless by man's inventiveness and ingenuity. The challenge to modern education is that it must teach tolerance and understanding to enable the new players to portray successfully the role of world citizens, and so to preserve those things we now accept as our birthright."

Bingo!

"Sky High"

"O, it offends me to the very soul, to hear a robustious periwig-pated fellow tear a passion to tatters . . ."

The seniors presented a tremendously successful interpretation of "Sky High" under the direction of Mr. Robert Schumann, April 24 and 25. The amusing comedy-mystery detailed the downfall of the dastardly depraved Dr. Barto, the director of a red spy ring who ran rampant in the Rockies prior to the riot raged by rugged Hank Taylor. Complications combined with comical characters continued to confound the continuity of the conspiracy. The innocent stumblings of Toots, the sweet sentimentality of Jill, the sharp sarcasm of Monica, the stupidity of the servant, Kaddy, and the simian savageness of Oscar stalled the spies' secret schemes. The amorous antics of young Arnold astounded all and added ardour to the atmosphere. The hectic holiday enhanced the hilarity, and the haunted hidey hole harassed the heroic-endeavor.

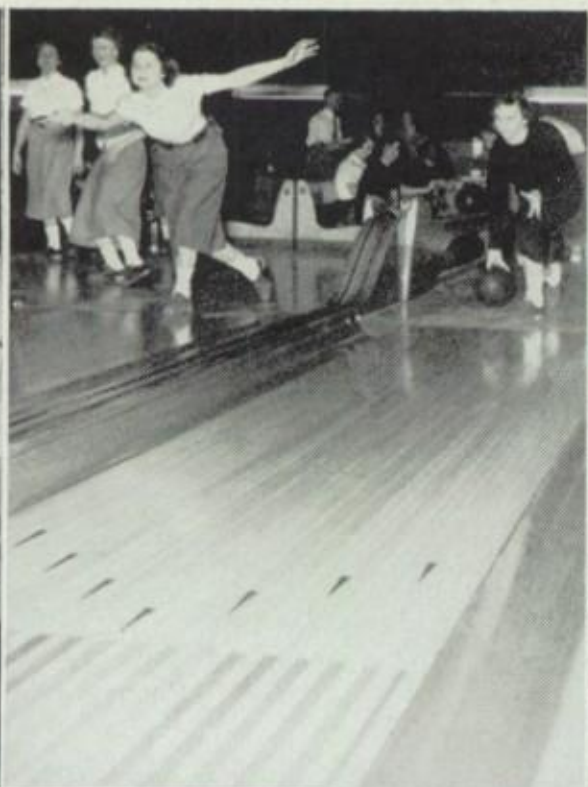

The cast was as follows: Bob Reddy, Arden Chapline, Priscilla Elliott, Carol Ritterspach, Don Merkin, Sanford Solomon, Lorena Mohrhoff, Ellen Goodman, Jack George, Dick Haight, Dan Collins, Arnold Zacks, Zane Jones, Charles Dozer, Marshall Glickman, Steve Ross, Mark Knolls, and Don Leeman.

The production staff included Mark Knolls, program ads; Ruth Kleinmaier, secretary; Bev Amorie, Charles Dawson, Heather Haines, and Sally Hartlerode, assistant directors; Baron Kramer, stage manager; Eric Doescher, assistant stage manager; Norman Felsenthal, ads coordinator; Dan Collins, art; Tom Hofheimer, business; Rita Click, costumes; Bill Stygler, lighting; Joan Levy, make up; Carl Slenk and Bill Bettridge, photography; Bob Reddy, program design; Phyllis Dolinger, prompter; Connie Basch, properties; Shirley Jones, publicity; Ralph Ehrenhaus, sound effects; and Eileen Powers, head usher.

J u n i o r s

For the past three years the students in the Class of '53 have been doing their part effectively to further the interests and activities of Bexley High School. They are a class of individuals working together in order to bring into realization the ideals for which our school stands.

Their officers Brooke Gibson, president; Marcia Neuman, vice-president; Kenny Strahm, secretary-treasurer, have proved themselves real leaders throughout the year. Under their leadership the class sponsored dances and sold cokes and hot dogs at football games. Along with these projects for earning money to finance their Junior-Senior Prom, the Junior Class sold Bexley pennants.

The class put all its efforts into developing a prom which thoroughly entertained the seniors and which satisfied and gave pride to hard working juniors. Entering through a mammoth "Buddah", the dancers found themselves in the romantic setting of oriental pagodas and ming trees in "Japanese Gardens."

The Junior Class is remarkable in scholarship as well as in athletic ability. Seven members were elected to membership in the National Honor Society this year, for which the class may be quite proud. A rather large number of junior boys showed their prowess during the football season. It is an unusual fact that co-captains were elected from this class to lead the football team during the 1952-53 season. Many of the boys are active in basketball, baseball, swimming, tennis, and track. Individuals of the class show superior talent along musical lines and are members of the choir, glee club, and band organizations. The juniors are actively interested not only in school functions but have displayed a great deal of leadership in the B-Hive, the presidency being held by a junior.

The Class of '53 is indeed a group of entertaining and varied individuals. They may be regarded with admiration and may be expected to carry on next year with the discretion and respect which every leading class in this school should hope to achieve.

S o p h o m o r e s

The Sophomore Class is one of unusually great spirit and interest in all school activities, a class which undoubtedly shows great promise. Having passed through the difficulties and realized the adjustments one must make during the freshman year, they have emerged as a hard-working, community-minded, all-around good class.

Their first job was to elect officers who would be capable of undertaking responsibilities as worthy leaders. They chose Lorrin Tarlton, president; Preston Gurwin, vice-president; and Nancy Miller, secretary-treasurer.

Because the thought of the Junior-Senior Prom is always the top most idea in the minds of every class entering Bexley High School, the big project of the Class of '54 was starting to raise money for the prom which they will sponsor in just one more year. In order to earn their money, the class handled all the concessions at baseball games and at the track meets. This project proved itself a very successful and profitable one for the class treasury, and a hearty treat for all those who attended the aforementioned athletic events. With their financial status in mind, the sophomore class also sponsored a picnic and dance at the Jeffrey Mansion in May.

The class is well represented in all the varied activities of the school. Four members of the Class of '54, Patty Metzger, Nancy Arnold, Toby Willson, Carol Newhouse, are cheerleaders. Their Student Council delegates are good and willing workers. Members of the Sophomore class have been active in the functions of the Student Health Council. The girls as well as the boys in this group show definitely great ability in athletics. A large percentage of the girls participate in hockey, basketball, and tennis. Anne Richardson shows particularly outstanding ability as a golfer and her class may be proud of her achievements. Several of the boys play varsity positions in football and enter into other athletic events whole-heartedly.

Although the freshman year is probably the hardest because of the adjustments that must be made in entering high school life, the Class of '55 has shown that it is capable of tackling many situations in an efficient manner. The class entered Bexley High School at a time when many changes were beginning to take place, and, fortunately for these freshmen, they will be here long enough to see the culmination of these ideas.

The class has executed their projects successfully from the very beginning. Their talent and originality brought them first prize for designing the best float in the homecoming parade. In January they put forth their enthusiasm and class spirit and won the first Bexleo sales tax stamp drive for which they received a prize of twenty-five dollars. Later in the year, the Girls Athletic Club awarded them the prize for having the highest class representation at Girls' Basketball Class Night.

The class elected the following officers in the fall of this year: Mark Pohlman, president; Sandra Montgomery, vice-president; and Tucker Ayers, secretary-treasurer. They have managed the problems and affairs of their class well and efficiently under the guidance of their advisor, Miss Margaret Love.

The freshman class has added 170 students to our ever increasing enrollment, from which must be chosen the school leaders for the coming three years.

In the field of athletics this class promises some fairly outstanding participants. Several boys have shown potential ability in basketball, football, and swimming. Freshman boys performed outstandingly well in leading the reserve basketball team to second place in the Central Buckeye League.

The Class of '55 has much to remember about its first year in high school and many experiences to anticipate in future high school days. The long climb up to the third floor will dwindle each year as gains in age, knowledge, experience, understanding, and respect by those who will be the future freshmen are made.

Dramatics

This year the Dramatics Club was organized in both the first and second semester dramatics classes. Meetings were held in class periods. Both dramatics classes gave a tea and a play for their mothers. Those pictured were in the first semester club whose officers were Jeffrey Schwartz, president; Pris Elliott, vice-president; Heather Haimes, secretary-treasurer. Second semester officers were Jack Bernlohr, president; Don Leeman, vice-president; Bob Reddy, secretary; Mary Keys, treasurer; Bev Amorine, program chairman; and Jane Grimm, sergeant-at-arms.

Future Teachers of America gives its members the opportunity to learn about the teaching profession and to cultivate the qualities essential to a good teacher. Programs include panel discussions, reports on lectures and city-wide meetings, and guest speakers.

Joan Frankenberger, president; Carol Ritterspach, vice-president; Mary Keys, secretary-treasurer; and Miss Marion Thomas, faculty advisor, led the group in a most successful year.

The members participated in panel discussions, attended lectures and city-wide meetings, and visited other schools.

Spanish Club

A Spanish Club is organized in each Spanish class. All students studying this language belong to one of the clubs. Each class has its own officers and holds meetings once a month. Programs include reports on Latin and South American countries, Spanish customs and holidays, movies, records, and outside speakers. As in previous years, the clubs combined their efforts at Christmas and presented a gift of money to St. Vincent's Orphanage. The students pictured are club officers. Miss Selma Hamann is club advisor.

Science Club

The scientific minded student at Bexley High may increase his knowledge and interest in the field of science through membership in the Science Club. The club sponsors entries to the annual Science Day contest at O.S.U. at which students compete for scholarships.

The Science Club is divided into committees: Biology, Chemistry, and Physics.

Led by Ralph Ehrenhaus, president; Kress Rosenthal, vice-president; Dave Folkman, secretary; and Jack Plotkin, treasurer the Science Club explored such subjects as the theory of rockets and jets.

Music Club

To further interest, competition, and spirit in musical activities is the purpose of Music Club. The club composed of members of the choir and band has just completed its third successful year. There was a variety of programs. The big project of the year was the buying of music club pins. Officers were Carol Ritterspach, president; Carol Helm, vice-president; Carol Hisey, secretary; and Peggy Ramey, treasurer. Faculty advisors are C. Robert Myers, Choral Director, and John F. Stanton, Band Director.

Book Club

The Book Club under the guidance of Miss Gallogly, Bexley High School librarian, has set a record this year in its membership. The entertainment at the monthly meetings varied from a "Beauty Shoppe Quartet" to the annual talk given by Mrs. Kefauver. One of the main purposes of the club is to get students interested in reading more good books. The officers for this school year were Ruth Kleinmaier, president; Jane Grimm, vice-president; Marilyn Early, secretary; and Bob Weiler, treasurer.

French Club

Highlighting French Club activities this year was the visit to the club's January meeting of Mme. Snediker, only student ever to graduate from O.S.U. with a four point average.

The aims of French Club this year were to promote among first and second year students greater interest in the culture of France.

Officers were Bunny Hunt, president; Connie Basch, vice-president; Carol Helm, secretary; Susan Polster, treasurer; Nancy Morris and Mary Anne Creager, social chairmen. Ralph M. Howell was faculty advisor.

Hi-Y

This year's Hi-Y club under advisor John Schacht, continued to fulfill its purpose of "creating, maintaining, and extending high standards of Christian character throughout the home, school, and community. President Rod Cooke was elected vice-president of the City Hi-Y Council, and Dan Collins, treasurer, was elected secretary. Problems of race prejudice, religion, and dating were topics at the meetings. Twelve members participated in "City Day", in which the Hi-Y clubs assumed the duties of the Columbus city officers for a day.

Latin Club

Under the guidance of Miss Babcock, Latin Club had a busy year. The club sold Bexley Lions pencils and raised enough money to pay for Bexley's entrance in the nation-wide Latin examinations. The club also adopted a family at Christmas.

The highlights of the year were the Roman Banquet and Nuntius Latinus, the Latin newspaper.

The 1951-1952 officers were Lynne Burns, president; Sandra Hoffman, vice-president; Joy Folkman, recording secretary; Dolly Ozeroff, corresponding secretary; and Ricky Marsh, treasurer.

Art Club

This year the Art Club elected as its president, Bob Reddy; secretary, Doris Cosner; and treasurer, Rita Huffaker. Ralph Trivella was faculty advisor. Funds raised by selling concessions at the football games were used for purchasing frames now used to exhibit the paintings of art students. The results of student talent were displayed at Art Open House. This spring the club took a trip to Cincinnati to visit the Taft Museum and the Cincinnati Art Museum.

Back row: Chamberlain, Haunty, N. Y-Teens

Under the guidance of Miss McCurdy, Joan Levy, president; Nancy Leftwich, vice-president; Joy Folkman, secretary; Irene Pearson, treasurer; and 21 cabinet members; Y-Teens has striven to build a fellowship of girls and to uphold the ideals of the Y.W.C.A.

In the fall Y-Teens sponsored a Dutch Chocolate dance to get chocolate bars for children overseas. At Christmas time the girls sang carols in the halls and gave a party for 25 orphans. Other projects of the club were Easter Watch Services and the Easter Assembly, the annual Mothers' Tea, and Links, a city-wide Y-Teens project which gives the girls a chance to work in hospitals, settlement houses, nurseries, and old folk homes.

G. A. C.

Organized for the purpose of promoting cooperation and good sportsmanship, the Girls' Athletic Club, under the direction of Miss Margaret Love, has sponsored all girls' sports activities around school.

The 1951-1952 season opened with a "Jeans Jamboree" rushing party for freshmen and newcomers to the school. G.A.C. bought mittens for the children of St. Vincent's orphanage and sponsored hockey night and the senior-faculty basketball game.

Officers for this year were president, Jackie Sallee; vice-president, Sheila Tilbrook; secretary, Mary Keys; treasurer, Nancy Leftwich.

Stanton, director.

Under the direction of John Stanton the Bexley High School Band has completed another successful year of activities.

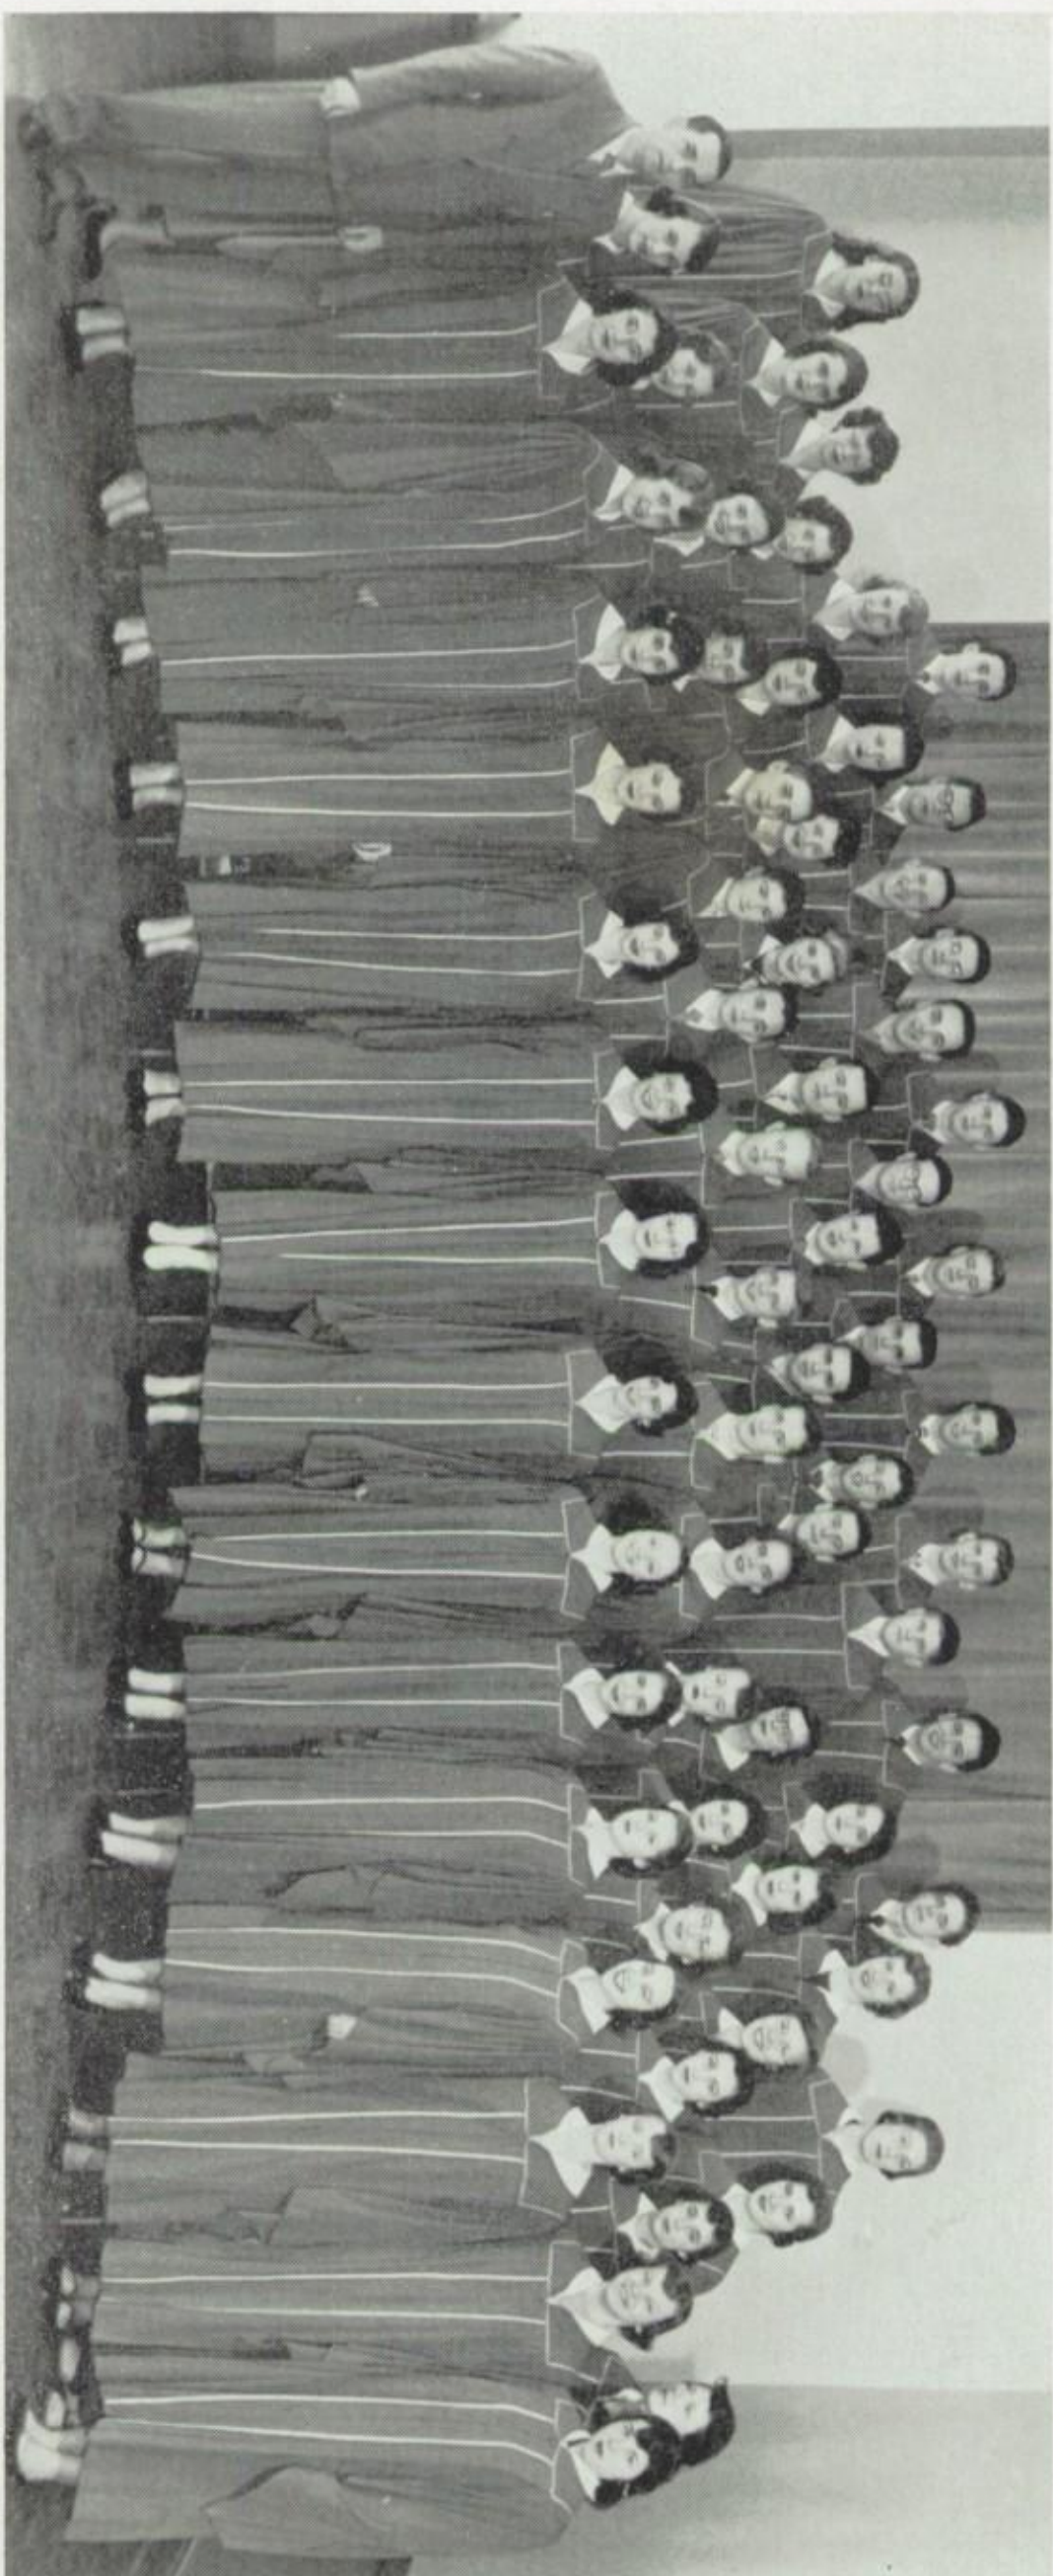

The Marching Band performed at all the football games using a variety of marching techniques at half time.

At the close of marching season, the band shifted its attention to concert music in preparation for its Annual Patron Concert which was held April 4. This concert marked the first appearance of the band in its new uniforms. A combined vocal and instrumental concert was given May 27.

The band marched in the Christmas parade, played for a Columbus Day program and the dedication of Bexley's new municipal building. Some band members and string players were selected for Ohio Wesleyan University's Annual High School Music Festival and the All Ohio High School Orchestra.

Officers of the band were Jack George, president; Marshall Glickman, vice-president; Carol Helm, secretary; and Marilyn Anthony, treasurer.

The Bexley High School Choir under the direction of C. Robert Myers is composed of 72 members. The Choir meets five times a week to study and develop interests in good music.

The Choir sang at the Christmas assembly, the Thanksgiving assembly, the assembly held during Brotherhood week, and the Y-Teens Easter Watch Service. They presented their annual Christmas Concert December 13 in the high school auditorium and combined with the band to present a joint concert May 27. Instead of giving an operetta as in the two previous years, the Choir sponsored a variety show with the main theme being a nightclub scene. The Choir also sang for a Christmas program at Cassingham Junior High School and for a meeting of the Downtown Kiwanis Club.

The officers of the Choir for the past year were Bev Amorine, president; Connie Miller, secretary-treasurer; Bill McIver, social chairman.

Girls' Ensemble

Harms, Wilson, Wedburg, Anthony, Newhouse, Miller, Helm, Chapline, Mason, Mr. Myers at piano.

The Girls' Ensemble is made up of voices chosen from the members of the Choir. They sang at the Christmas Concert, the Minstrel Show, and many outside organizations. They entered the Ohio Educators' Contest for Girls' Ensembles and received superior ratings in both the district and state contests.

Torch

Since the Torch was established in 1926, it has been bringing to the students of Bexley reviews and previews of all the activities in school. Though they had a new and difficult job this year when the printing process and format of the Torch was completely changed, the 1952 staff, under the direction of William Matthews and Ralph Howell, completed a successful year.

By experimenting with the first several issues, a satisfactory size and form for the paper were found. Though there is more work involved for staff members using the new process, seventeen Torches were verified, justified, cut and pasted, and published this year compared with seven issues in previous years.

The members of the staff will never forget—the Torch office, 304A—"make-up on Saturdays," 9:00 'til 2:00 or 3:00 or 4:00—"girls sports gotta go"—headlines—the goof-off April first issue—"signing out" of Torch office—Bob filling the empty spaces with cartoons—Rod's and Bunny's constant efforts to make each Torch the best ever.

As the staff signs its final thirty, it wishes next year's seniors the best of luck and hopes that they will gain the feeling of satisfaction and the profitable experience we have had in publishing the Torch.

Bexleo

Shakespeare and his works, the theme of this year's Bexleo, was chosen because of the effect they have on our every day lives. Hardly a day passes without there being some reference to Shakespeare. It may be in the form of a song, a play, or a quotation. From his works we learn that the people of his day had many of the same problems we have today. It is very remarkable that his plays, which were enjoyed so many years ago, have survived all these years and are read and enjoyed by the people of today. The theme has been carried out not only in the art work but also in the quotations for the teachers, seniors, and division pages.

The staff will always remember the taking of pictures, soliciting for ads and patrons, writing copy, the hunting of quotations from Shakespeare, the mad Wednesday evenings at Hofheimers, Bob Reddy's art work, Tom's car buddies to meetings, and staff members learning to type.

The staff hopes that you as students will enjoy your Bexleo as much as we enjoyed bringing it to you. We hope this book will remind you of the good times you have had at Bexley High School during 1951 and 1952.

National Honor Society

There is no honor which Bexley High School can bestow upon a student which is comparable to that which accompanies a student's election to the National Honor Society of Secondary Schools.

Election to the National Honor Society is based upon four qualifications: Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service. No more than fifteen per cent of the senior class or five per cent of the junior class may be considered.

This year's candidates, composed of seniors and juniors, were installed by the six seniors elected last year.

Quill and Scroll

Thirteen members of this year's Torch and Bexleo staffs have been initiated into Quill and Scroll, the international honorary society for high school journalists. To be eligible for membership, the candidates must be in the upper third of their class; must have done superior work in some phase of journalism; must be of junior or senior standing; and must be recommended by the publications' advisors. The society's purpose is to encourage and reward individual achievement in journalism and allied fields.

Student Council

The Student Council, under the leadership of Jack Bernlohr, successfully completed several projects this year. These projects included such activities as Homecoming, Open House, Christmas baskets for the needy, New Year's Eve party, and vocational guidance.

Other various projects were the annual B-Hives, the installation of hall monitors, and plans for an inter-sport trophy with Arlington.

Much of the important planning was done by committees such as the project and the social ways and means committees.

Other officers were Joan Levy, vice-president; Carol Hoffman, secretary-treasurer; and Tom Hofheimer, sergeant-at-arms. Harold V. Tipton served as advisor.

Student Health Council

The Student Health Council during its second year of organization strived to "educate the student in better health and sanitation habits." Together with the Student Council, it helped to organize and promote a school clean-up campaign. The Council sponsored an assembly program on the subject of mental health, prepared a scrapbook in conjunction with a UNESCO project to present American school life to European children, and brought the towel system to its present perfection.

Dick Wood served his second term as president of the Health Council ably assisted by Jaqueline Sallee, vice-president; and Carol Newhouse, secretary. Miss Margaret Love was the faculty advisor.

Student Court

The Student Court, working under the leadership of Chief Justice Dan Collins and with the help of Harold V. Tipton, faculty advisor, has just completed its third successful year. Its purpose is to help individual students adjust themselves to the regulations and society of the school and to help Student Council with any general problems that might arise.

Review of Sports

by

CARLTON SMITH

The sports teams of 1951-1952 have been unusually successful, so far this year, in league competition. The football team finished second in the Central Buckeye League, the basketball team finished first in the Central Buckeye League, and the swimming team finished first in the Southern Division of the City League, first in the Central District Swimming Meet, and third in the State Finals. In the spring sports, the tennis team looks like a potential champion, and the baseball team has a good chance of defending the Central Buckeye League championship of last year. The track and golf teams unfortunately were below par.

The football team lost the first three games and seemed to be headed for a disastrous season, but ended in surprising its followers by beating Arlington, Grandview, and Mt. Vernon, and finishing in a tie for second in the Central Buckeye League. However, they lost all their non-league games, completing the season with a three won and six lost record. Because of the loss of three returning lettermen, second in the league proved to be a very good showing.

This year's basketball team was one of the best ever to represent Bexley High School. They not only won the Central Buckeye League with eleven wins and one loss, but also had a season's record of sixteen wins and three losses, which was good for a second best record in the Central District. Illness toward the end of the season prevented an even better record, and kept the team from making an excellent showing in the Central District Tournament.

The swimming team won their league easily and then went on to win the Central District Championship for the first time in Bexley history and finished third in the state meet. This record stamps the swimming team with the distinction of being the best in Bexley High School history. The baseball team has many veterans back this year and has great possibilities of finishing co-champion of the league or even to repeat as champions. They have, though, already lost one league game this year. This game, to date, is the only game that the team has lost this season.

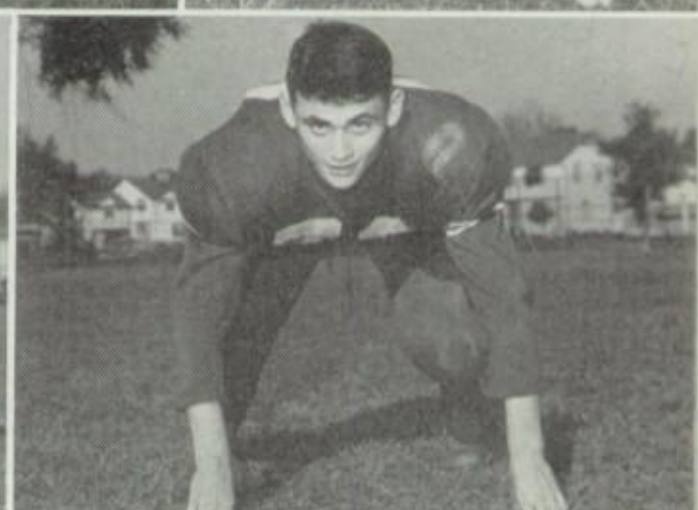

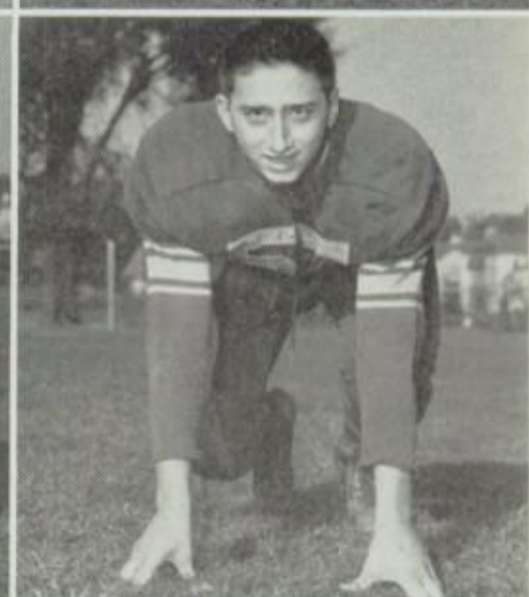

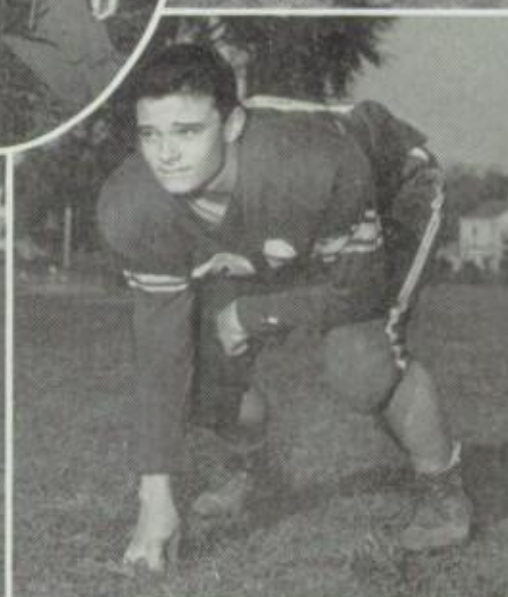

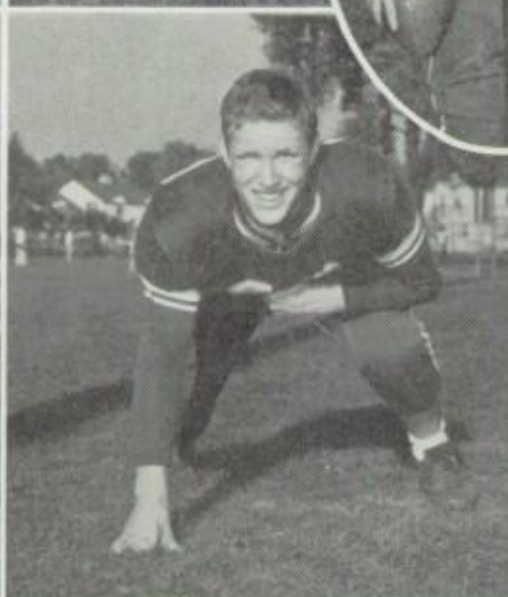

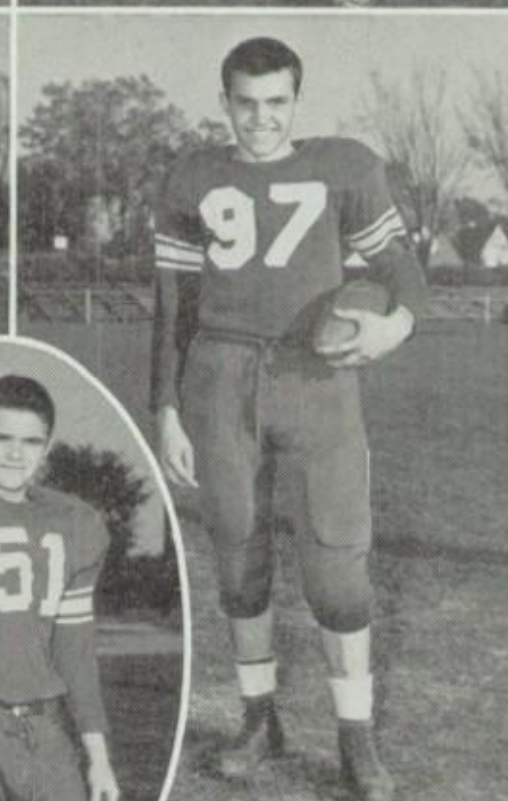

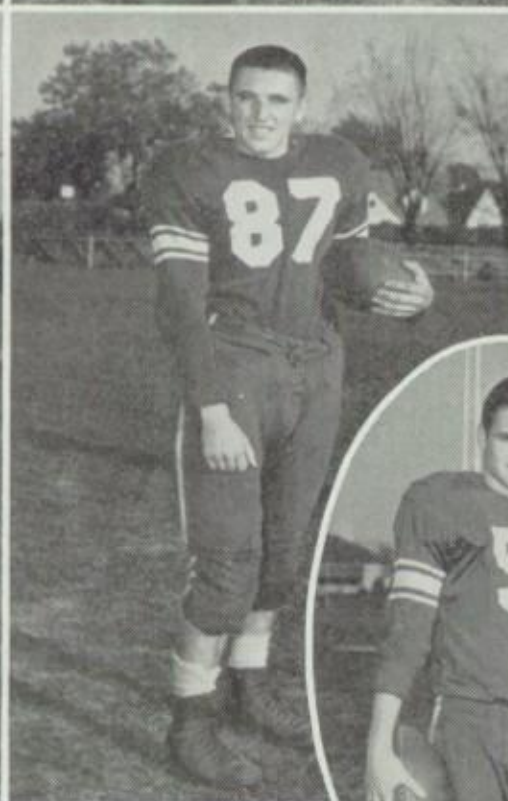

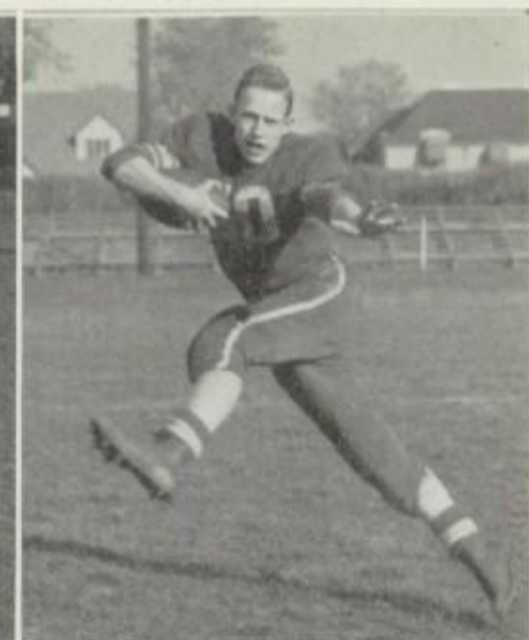

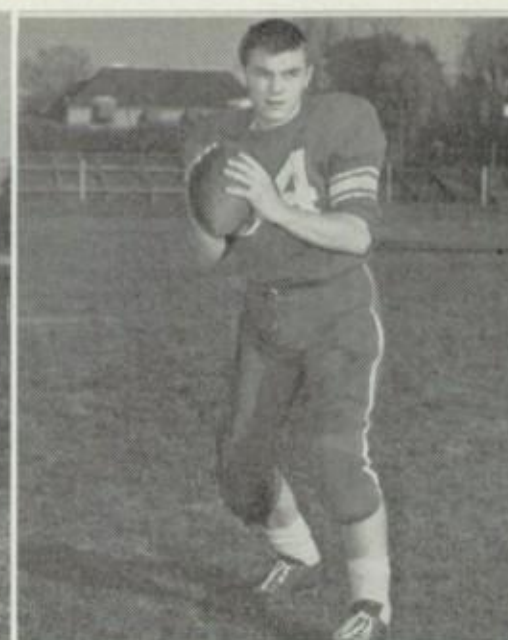

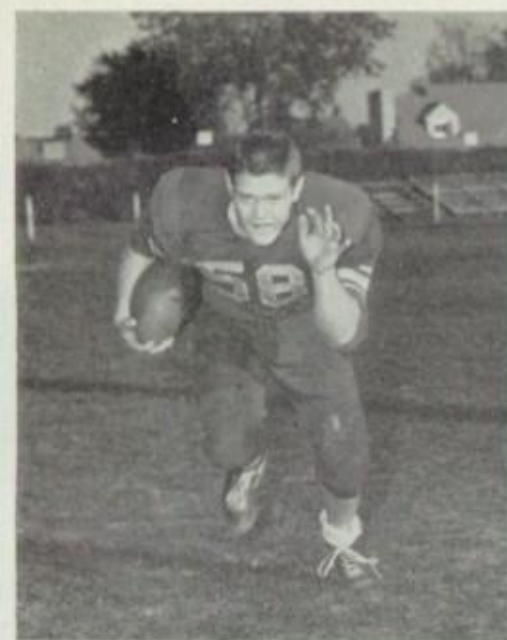

The tennis team is undefeated this season and has already overthrown a couple of strong rivals in league play. Because of this fact they seem like a sure bet to repeat as co-champions of the league or even to win the league outright this year.

The track and golf teams lost many veterans by graduation and are in the midst of doing a rebuilding job. Both teams have very mediocre records to date and do not envision a championship, although both squads plan to make it tough on any would-be champion this year.

The reserve football team was very mediocre, but the reserve basketball team was a championship contender all the way, and finished second in the Central Buckeye League.

This year, 1951-1952, will probably be one of our most successful in recent years. The morale and spirit of even our losing teams are excellent and what more can we ask than, "They do their best." That's what they have done.

The seniors of 1952 must be given a lot of credit for our success and we appreciate their spirit and co-operation. We will follow their careers with interest. We predict many championships for those who are left from these 1952 teams and hope they are as good leaders as their predecessors.

On The Gridiron

Bexley's 1951 football season was far from being the most successful but it certainly offered its share of thrills.

The Lions ended with an overall 3-6 record but came through with a 3-2 CBL record which was good for second place.

St. Charles again opened the Bexley schedule but showed a more potent offense than they usually produce by downing our Lions 13-0.

The next week Coach Carleton Smith took his team to Chillicothe where they were beaten 28-6. A 56 yard Bill Legg to Sanford Solomon pass was Bexley's only score. The team also lost the next week at Delaware 38-0.

An inspired Bexley team snapped out of their three game losing streak to nip their arch rival Upper Arlington 13-6. Bill Legg passed to Brooke Gibson for one score, ran across for the other TD and made the only extra point of the game.

The Lions lost their fourth game the next week at Urbana, 25-14. Brooke Gibson and Sandy Solomon who caught the TD passes and Bill Legg who passed for both TD's were the Bexley stars.

The Lions made homecoming a great success by whipping Mt. Vernon 30-0. While the defense held Mt. Vernon scoreless, the offense, led by Thornton Swisher who scored three times, went wild. A 59 yard run by Swisher and two better than 40 yard pass plays that went for TD's highlighted the evening.

The following week the Lions spoiled Grandview's homecoming by coming from behind to beat the Bobcats 25-20. Bill Legg went on a rampage for Bexley by scooting one, 46, and 65 yards for touchdowns and passing for a fourth.

The next week the Lions lost to a highly touted Washington C. H. team, 27-0, in a snowbowl. The field was covered with snow and ice and the weather was below freezing.

The season's final saw the Lions lose to North 19-13. Bexley rally fell short. They were on the seven yard line when time gave out.

Russ Owen's reserve squad finished the season with a record of 4 wins and 2 losses. Prospects seemed good for the next year's varsity team.

Coaching Staff: Dana "Lefty" Swinehart, Harold "Ben" Tenwalde, Carlton Smith, Russell "Russ" Owen.

On The Hardwood

The 1952 Lion basketball team had its share of glory this season. The team copped its first CBL pennant since 1946 and also featured a fifteen game winning streak and a record of 17 victories against 5 defeats.

The team started off in mediocre fashion by beating Marion, 56-48, and losing to West, 50-56. The cagers then started on a fifteen game winning streak. They began it with a 52-49 victory over Washington Court House. Then came two CBL victories over Arlington, 44-34; and Academy, 67-37.

Bexley held a carnival during the Christmas holidays and won it by beating Linden, 51-49, and Worthington, 56-35.

The Lions then roared over four CBL teams: Urbana, Delaware, Mt. Vernon, and Grandview by decisive scores of 54-40, 66-45, 33-26, and 62-46. The team squeaked by Circleville 66-65 before romping over five more CBL foes including Arlington, 58-42; Academy, 75-36; Urbana, 60-47; Delaware, 63-52; and Mt. Vernon, 51-43. The Mt. Vernon game was the climax as the Lions clinched the CBL Championship with their eleventh victory.

The winning streak was broken by an inspired Grandview five who beat the Lions, 55-64.

The team then journeyed to Newark for the last game of the regular season where they lost, 41-57.

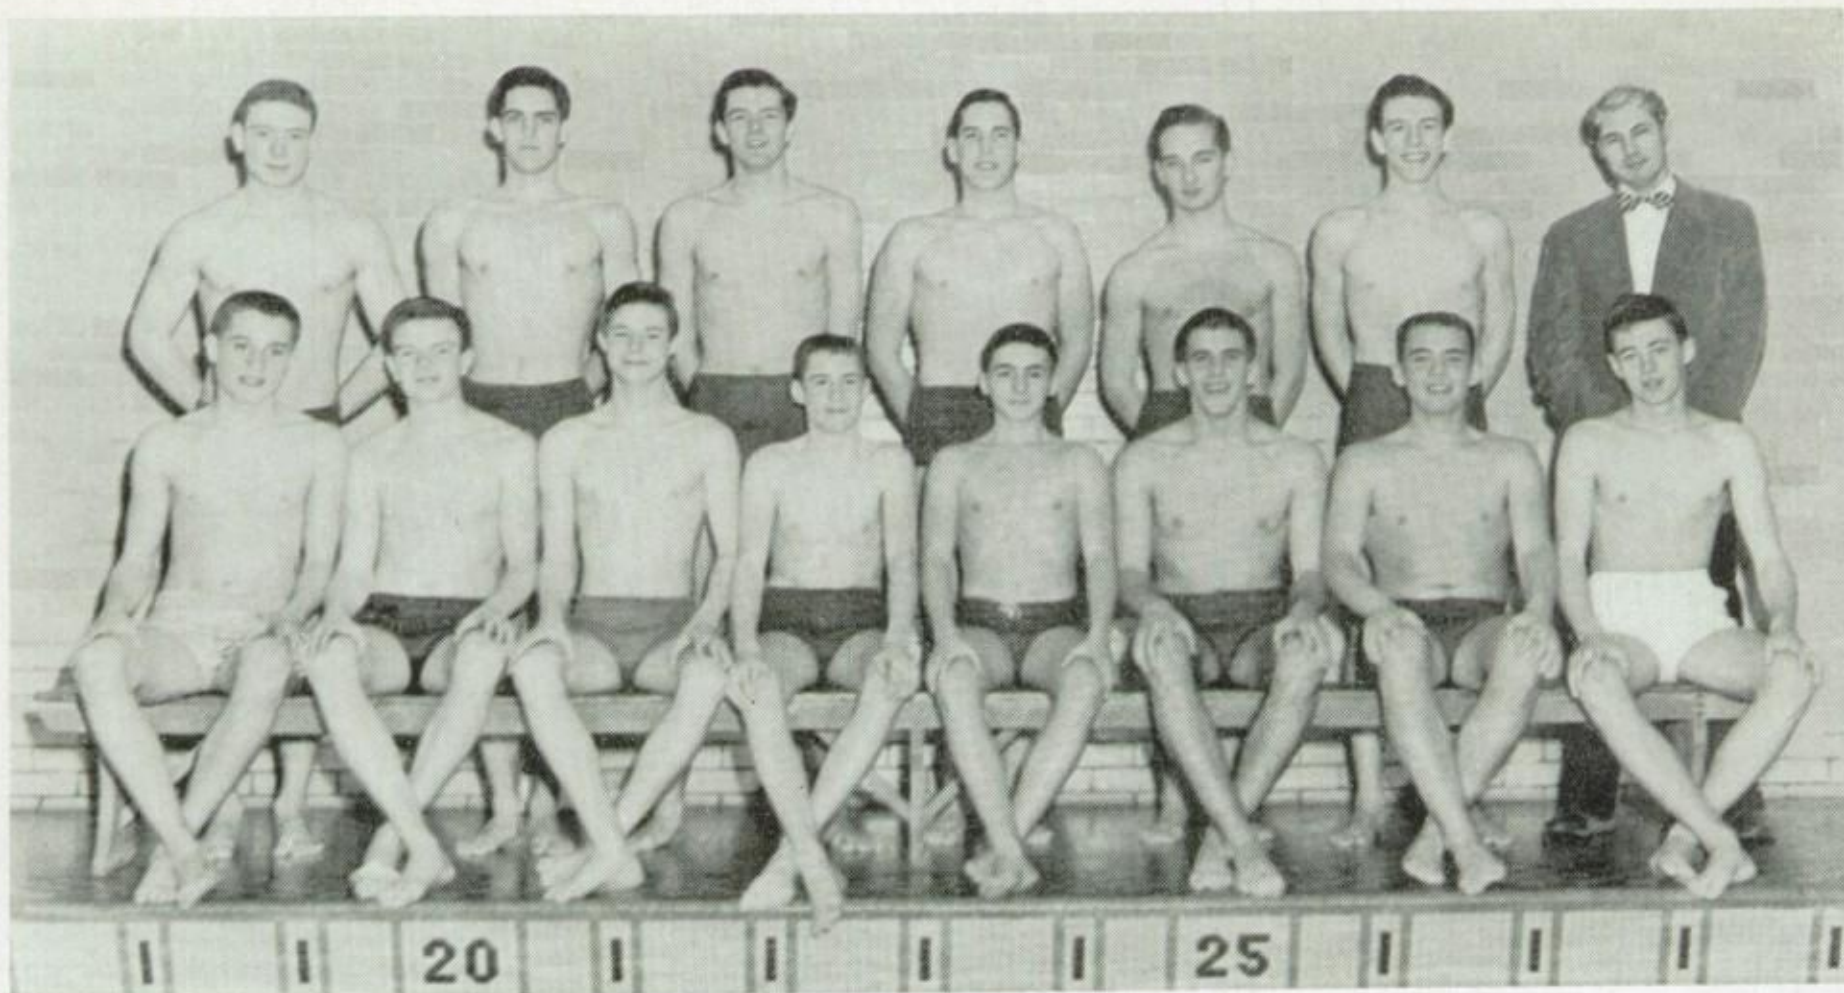

Hopes were high for the Lions to go places in the District tournament but after winning over Washington CH, 63-56, the Lions were flattened by Linden, 47-62.

The CBL all-star team was too good for the Lions in the final game and beat them, 60-52.

Swimming Team-District Champs

The 1952 swimming team finished the year with an exceptional record. Coached by Russ Owen, the tankers went through an undefeated regular season, twice winning over Academy and West. The team then went on to cop the district title and take a very respectable third place in the state meet.

The Champions were sparked by Andy Wallace, Don Merkin, and Bob Connell in the swimming events and Bob Hamer in the diving events.

Tennis

The '52 tennis squad, coached by Coach Robert Duffey, is looking toward a successful season. This year's racket men, the defending co-champions with Arlington, will play twelve league matches. The team is composed of Captain Howard Hirsch, first singles; Chuch Neustadt, second singles; Bob Koltun, third singles; Bob Weiler and Jim Mueller, first doubles; and Jack Meyers and Lorrin Tarlton, second doubles.

Golf

With only two men from the first eleven men of last year returning, the golf team of Coach Smith is finding it hard to win. Chic Wahoff, who has been medalist for the city a few times, Joe Rosenbloom, Dick Warnick, and Stephen Nacht compose the A team. The team competes in two different leagues, the City League and the Greater Columbus League.

Nacht, Rosenbloom, Wahoff, Warnick, McKenney, Carlton Smith.

Track

The 1952 track team, coached by "Lefty" Swinehart and Assistant Coach Russ Owen, is looking forward to an average season. Last year's squad ended the season with an exceptional record, placing second in the CBL.

This year the Lions have six lettermen returning to the team: Rodger Harrison, Jack Dollison, Bob Stone, Don Plotnick, Gene McHam, and Mark Schuh.

Several outstanding newcomers have been added to the team this year: Ronnie Cline, Dave Spitler, Andy Wallace, and Tom Boster.

Baseball

With last year's championship trophy resting in the Bexley school the opposition is aiming at the Lions as the team to beat during the 1952 season.

With eight lettermen returning Coach "Ben" Tenwalde is expecting a very good season. Bob Thacker and Roger Stock head the pitching staff; Jack Bernlohr plays first base; Preston Gurwin, second base; Bill Legg, short-stop; and Jerry Noethlich, third base. Outfielders are Tom Hofheimer, Don Leeman, and Vaughn Ware. Co-captains are Legg and Dave Hess, catcher.

Tennis

A favorite spring sport for the girls is tennis. Practice was Friday afternoon.

Matches were scheduled with Arlington, St. Marys and Grandview. Some of the members of the first team were Mary Marcus, Connie Basch, Karen Kilbourne, and Anne Richardson.

Hockey

The interscholastic A team completed the season with four wins over Arlington, Grandview, University, and St. Marys, while losing only to C.S.G. The B team won four and tied one. The seniors became champions on hockey night.

Golf: Hisey, Richardson, Tilbrook, Elliott, Keys, Levy.

Basketball

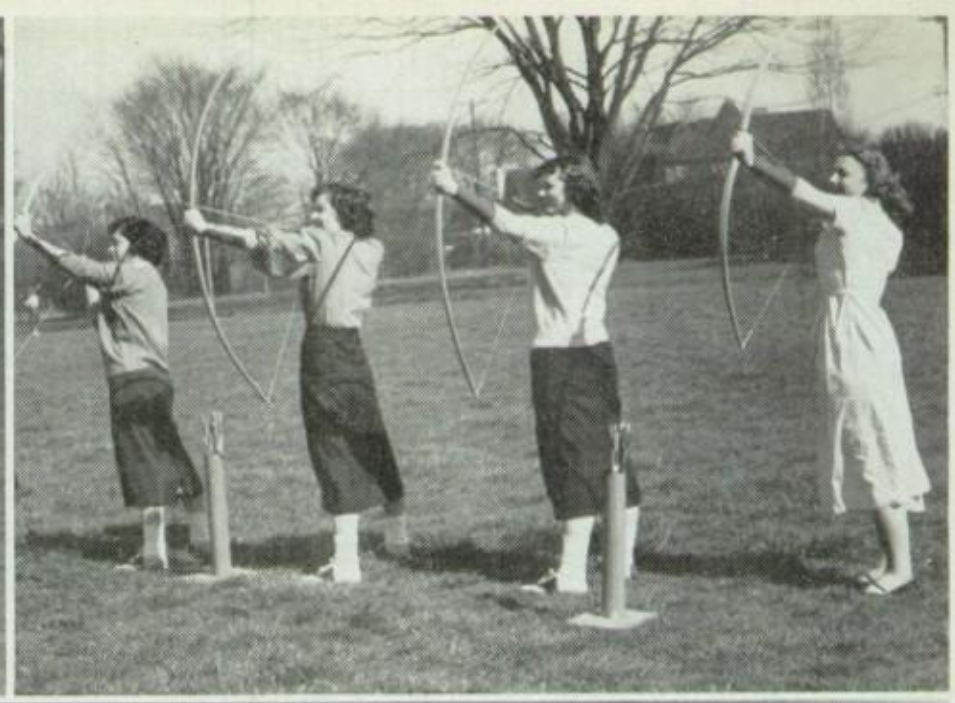

Interscholastic basketball games were played with Groveport, University, Grandview, St. Marys, and Arlington. Each class team played a corresponding class team from the opposing school. Bexley had a very successful season. On annual Class Night the seniors were victorious, beating first the sophomores and then winning the junior game by one point. For the first time, the seniors defeated the faculty in the faculty-senior game.

Golf

An increasing interest in golf was displayed this spring when 25 girls participated in lessons and an intramural tournament at the Columbus Country Club.

Practice and instruction were held every Monday afternoon after school. There were four members from last year's team back on the squad this year. They are Shirley Jones, Joan Levy, Mary Keys, and Ann Richardson.

In interscholastic events Bexley played Arlington and C. S. G.
